Presidents Message

Dear Members,

The new year has begun and I am sure we have already or are taking down those beautiful decorations you so proudly displayed.

Let us reflect on what we accomplished last year and what our goals are for this coming year.

As beautiful women of the community, I look at you for my own inspiration and spirit.

I express my blessings and encouragement to each and every one of you to go forth and be all you can be.

Your lives are precious and I understand if you do not have much time to give to the Women's Chamber as when you first started. All intentions are good and are appreciated.

God, Family, Job and everything else is how I live life.

I thank God every day for what He has allowed me to do, have, and experience.

Blessings for my family every day and that they may savor life to its fullest.

Blessings for my job and the family I have made there to make it more than a place to go every day.

So with this I ask you to search and put into priority what you feel is important in your life and practice to make it the best you can.

Women helping women is just that. Our Chamber is made up of beautiful women and we nurture that existence. Caring for others more than ourselves.

Give from the heart freely and join other women with the same goals and cares.

See you at the meeting,
Rose Bradshaw

Be sure and Pick Up your Yearbooks at the meeting!
