

Presidents Message

Members, Friends and My Sisters,

As I come to the end of my term, I look back and am so honored to have had a chance to be a part of such a wonderful organization. I have watched us grow into an organization that has truly made a name for itself in our community.

Our accomplishments are endless. My board and committee heads worked endlessly and tirelessly to get our organization noted as a vital part of Kerr County. Along with taking part in many activities, the impact we have made and are still making in our community has put KCWC in a position to be one of the community's highest rated organizations.

Our volunteer efforts has propelled us into being noted and admired by other organizations. That is evident with the continued requests we receive to lend a hand.

I am not sad but excited to hand over the reins to Tammy P. Rhodes and look forward to continue being a part of the next exciting steps KCWC will be making in our community. As I have always said, you are not just members to me, you are my family and I pray that you have and do consider me as part of yours.

Until we work together again, my door is always open and my heart is filled with your beautiful faces.

Love you all
Rose M. Bradshaw
