Presidents Message

Dear Members,
As the school year comes next month, we all have thoughts of the little ones that will be attending and becoming our future.

This month's drive is to help them get a good start for the school year. I ask that when you are at the store shopping, take advantage of the school supply lists provide. Purchase and bring some of the items so that we may give a child that needed head start in life. If you have never been in the school setting, you have not seen how bullying and harsh some can be when they do not have even a box of their own crayons.

Reach deep and give from the heart, for I know you are all beautiful women that care.

See you at the meeting,
Rose Bradshaw

5th Annual Military Luncheon

Girl Scout Troop 224

What a spectacular luncheon! We started off with Girl Scout Troop 224's Presentation of Colors, then the talented Calley Smith led us in the Pledge of Allegiance. Then Rachel McCormick sang a wonderful rendition of the National Anthem, and Rose Bradshaw asked each branch of the military to stand during the playing of their military anthem. Every Veteran was given a chocolate bearing the emblem of their military branch from Sharon Norlander of Creative Cakes. What a wonderful way to honor our veterans! A special thanks to Jannell Bullock and the Ways & Means Committee for the decorations, they were fantastic! Look inside for more pictures of this great event.

Program Speaker

Gary Noller

Debbie Barron introduced our program speaker, Gary Noller a retired veteran, who now helps with the Texas Veteran Commission. Mr. Noller spoke of the different areas of veteran needs in which the commission helps. He also spoke on behalf of AmVets Post 1000 which has a special project of making personalized bookcases for children with a parent serving in the military. Kerr County Women’s Chamber General Membership brought books to donate to help fill the bookcases. In addition, a special donation of $542.00 was given on behalf of Kerr County Women’s Chamber to AmVets Post 1000 for the purchase of additional books for children.

A military family shares their experience of receiving a bookcase and how wonderful it was for her son.
